Game Rained Out, Double-Header For Friday

Message Says Title Bout Is Outlawed In State

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—Telegrams protesting against the Carpenter-Gibbons fight at Michigan City Saturday were received by Governor Branch from the Presbyterian Assembly at Grand Rapids, Mich., and the Methodist Conference at Springfield, Mass. Both messages declared the match will be unlawful prize fight under Indiana laws. Gov. Branch is said to have taken every precaution to see that the state laws are observed.

They Are Ready!
MICHIGAN CITY.—Georges Carpenter and Tommy Gibbons have finished the hard grind and now are drifting along on light calisthenics to their 10 round fight here Saturday. They are on edge and fear over training.

Gibbons wound up with ten six-ounce rounds while Georges idled around yesterday. It is almost the consensus of opinion that the fight is a toss up and the "experts" are advising against putting up bets. "Almost anything may happen," is the more or less original way they sum it up.

MELLON CHARGED WITH DEALING WITH NOTED BOOTLEGGER

WASHINGTON, May 29.—In his farewell appearance before the Senate investigating committee Gaston B. Means said Jesse Smith gave him documents "showing that Secretary Mellon had gone into arrangements with Red Sheldon, New York bootlegger, to give Sheldon liquor permits for which he was to pay part of the national republican committee deficit." Means said he heard that Fred Upham, treasurer of the committee, and Senator Bursum of New Mexico, were parties to the "deal." Means said the big bootleggers are bankers of this country, and the "buddies" of them all are Mellon banks and the Chatham Phoenix bank of New York.

Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, who will occupy an exactly similar position in the Democratic National Convention in New York City.

ROTARY ENTERTAINS GRADUATES OF THE MEXIA HIGH SCHOOL AT THE NOONDAY WEEKLY LUNCHEON

The Mexia Rotary club held its weekly luncheon at the Majestic cafe at noon today. Guests of the club were members of the graduating class of the Mexia High School. Although a heavy rain fell a few minutes prior to the luncheon and program, a large attendance marked the occasion as one of the most interesting and largely attended of the year.

The program committee was composed of Reuben Maddox, John Prickett and George Williams. John Prickett presided at the program, after the meeting had been started off by President Hardy Eubanks. Mrs. Roy Akin presented the Sumter Street School orchestra to the crowd. The organization rendered two highly appreciated numbers. Hon. Joseph H. Byers delivered the address of the occasion, speaking on "Aristocrats and Aristocracies." This speech he has delivered to many schools in the county this year and was very timely at the luncheon today. The address was one overflowing with magnificent thoughts and in keeping with the spirit of Rotary which stands for "Service above self." Mr. Byers declared that the true aristocrat is the one who renders a distinct service to mankind.

Greatest Storm Of The Year Hits Last Night

WETUMKA, Okla., May 29.—Twelve persons known dead, more than fifty injured and several missing with property damage estimated at more than $100,000, was the toll of cyclones which scourged Southwestern Oklahoma in the greatest storm of the year late yesterday and last night, according to incomplete reports today.

Wetumka was hardest hit by the twister, which swept a path a block wide and five blocks long through the residential district shortly before night. Ten were killed outright and forty injured here. Fourteen of the most seriously injured were taken to hospitals at Henryetta, where it was believed today all would recover. Thirty were housed in the National Guard armory as an improvised hospital, while the homeless and slightly injured were taken in by residents.

The dead:
J. L. Ramsey.
W. R. Armstrong, wife and baby.
H. A. Woodruff and wife.
Infant daughter of Edward Cole.
Three unidentified.

Two persons were reported dead and two injured at Warner, thirty miles south of Muskogee.

The dead:
William Winkelpeck, 43.
Madge Ward, 14.
Wire communications throughout this section of the State were disrupted today and many towns were cut off from communication. Reports that Stigler, seventy-five miles east of here, was wiped out, could not be verified.

Red Cross units were enroute here today to help care for the injured and take the place of volunteer relief workers who labored through the night searching the debris for the victims of the elements.

The storm dropped into the better residence section traveling in an easterly direction shortly before sundown. Little rain accompanied the twister. Only a boiling funnel-shaped cloud traveling in a leisurely manner was noticed by residents. Witnesses in other sections of the town declared little breeze was felt, but its path was swept clean.

Physicians and volunteers, realizing the catastrophe, waited breathlessly for its passage and then started their search for the victims. Physicians from surrounding towns arrived during the night and conditions were orderly today with the National Guard unit here and the American Legion in charge.

42 GOLFERS TO COMPETE FOR NATIONAL CHAMPS

CHICAGO, May 29.—Forty-two golfers, survivors of the Western eliminations at the Oak Park Country Club, will compete in the finals of the national open golf championship at Birmingham, Mich., June 5 and 6. Mac Donald Smith, of San Francisco, turned in the best score of the trials, making 72-76-148. Emmet French, Youngstown, Ohio, was second with 76-73-149.

Chick Evans and S. Davidson, both veteran players, barely survived the trials with full scores of 158, the limit to qualify. John Black, of Wichita, Kas., a runner-up in recent national tournaments, disappointed the galleries by turning in a 109, which eliminated him from the finals.

Panic Created When Many Killed In Blow Up

BUCHAREST, May 29.—Many persons were killed and injured and the royal families of Roumania and Greece barely escaped with their lives when munitions magazines and artillery dumps near Bucharest blew up in a series of deafening explosions that continued throughout Wednesday. The capital was under fire of a rain of bursting shells which shattered windows in every part of the city and fell in the courtyard of the royal palace. One shell exploded with terrific effect on the exact spot where King Ferdinand had been standing a few seconds before.

Parliament adjourned as the intensity of the explosions increased. There was a panic in schools throughout the city and these were closed to permit the children to seek safety in their homes.

Sparks from a switch engine apparently started the conflagration, igniting a small arms ammunition magazine about two miles from the city. The first explosion was at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The first dump to let go was in the center of a larger one and flames spread rapidly, exploding a series of magazines. The blasts kept up irregularly until 4 p. m., when flames reached the artillery dumps.

Then began a series of deafening explosions and shells began to fall in every direction, some bursting near the royal palace. Parliament was in session but adjourned.

King Ferdinand and his minister of war, General Madaresco, rushed to the scene of a fire started by one of the detonating shells. The general snatched the King back from a particularly dangerous spot and a few seconds later a shell, landing just where Ferdinand had been standing, blew a large hole in the earth.

Meanwhile the inhabitants were in a panic. Those in the western part of the city, nearer the dumps, fled eastward, many believing the city was being bombarded. The shocks from the exploding dumps caused windows to break throughout the city, so that a constant tinkling of falling glass accompanied the disorder.

The royal family with King George and Queen Elizabeth of Greece, who are here in exile, hastily evacuated the summer residence at Cotroceni. The ceiling fell in shortly afterward.

Even with darkness there was no respite. At 8 p. m. the explosions were resumed. Three tremendous shocks were registered within an hour, followed by rumbling noises like thunder.

An immense column of dense smoke hung over the arsenal and dumps,

MEXIA STEPS IN LINE.

J. Perry Burrus, who is to subscribe to stock in the Mexia Cotton Mills and who is to work with J. K. Hughes and the other directors of the local textile organization in making it a successful, profitable, dividend paying and community building factor in the life of this community is optimistic over the outlook of Texas as an industrial district. He believes that within the next ten years this state will witness the location in Texas of ten times as many cotton mills as are now here. Other experts see the same trend. That being the case, Mexia has acted wisely in seeking and in securing a big mill here. The location of one mill in Mexia means the attraction here of possibly other mills or the ultimate expansion of the one decided upon, giving this community a promising prospect of becoming a real industrial section along with the growth of the State.

A TIME FOR RECONSTRUCTION

The American Legion in the United States has contributed and is really contributing a large service to America. It has extended a strong hand in helping lift a barrier at the ports that line the coasts on both sides of the continent, aiding much in securing the passage of a new immigration law soon to become operative. It stands for white supremacy and has heralded this doctrine throughout the length and breadth of the land. It has urged the enforcement of law, and in this way silenced the voices of extreme wets who were whispering when the boys came back from over there that had they been here, the nation would never have annexed the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It has been true to every soldier that fought or that was in training to fight for the preservation of the nation in the great world war. It has called attention to the needs of the men who returned to private life just as much martyrs to the cause as those from whom the breath of life had departed, as well as to the needs of measures of relief for the men who wore the khaki and who in so doing suffered permanent injuries to health and body and finally when a bonus was given the railroads and other giant industries, when it became apparent that it was in line with the custom and traditions of America, following all wars of the past, they fought for and secured the passage of the bonus bill in the form of insurance.

In all these campaigns, the Nowlin Post of the American Legion of Mexia has taken its part, carrying its share of the load, functioning harmoniously with the National organization.

But not the least of all services to the Nation rendered by the American Legion has been and is that wherein every Post of the American Legion in the United States is authorized and advised to take hold and see that no patriotic day passes but that it is properly observed. Since the organization of the Nowlin Post, the local soldiers have striven to the end that the attention of the entire public might be duly called to the auspicious occasions when Americans are expected to kneel on the altars of their country and renew their allegiance and cement more bindingly than ever the ties of love for homeland. That's the service of National holidays. The original design was not to have holidays merely for bankers to take a day of rest or for postal employees to have an outing, but to afford days of reconsecration to the high ideals of America.

In line with this fundamental purpose of holidays championed by the American Legion the Nowlin Post, assisted by the old soldiers of the South, honor to their great deeds! have called the service for Thursday night at the First Baptist church. This occasion is to celebrate Memorial Day, Friday night could not be utilized, which is the Thirtieth of May, on account of that chancing to be commencement day for the Mexia High School. To this service tonight and to the cause which it represents all citizens of this community are invited to lend a hand and their presence if possible.

TEXAS AS TEXTILE CENTER

Waco News-Tribune
J. Perry Burrus is a Texan who is largely interested in textile mills as well as flouring mills. He has many iron in the fire. He is home from Boston where he conferred with many of the big spinners of New England. Now the Texan says that instead of going out to seek cotton mills Texas in two years time will have to be putting the breaks on to keep too many mills from coming in at one time.

According to the Texan it is rapidly becoming to be unprofitable to operate mills in New England. This is due to the fact that freight rates are away up and to the further fact that the center of distribution of the finished products of the mills is every year moving further and further to the west.

Further more the New England spinners see the handwriting on the wall. They know that they must move their industry nearer to the section where the raw material is produced. Big spinners of the northeastern portion of the Atlantic seaboard, according to Mr. Burrus, are looking to Texas more and more and he knows of at least four men among the giants of the textile industry who are coming to Texas this fall to look the situation over.

They told the Texan something else—that as the cotton mills begin to move out of New England very few would go to the southeastern states on the Atlantic seaboard as the people of these states are interested in cotton mills of their own and do not wish to encourage new mills to come in. Hence the southwest and especially Texas, is the section toward which all the New England spinners are gazing with interested eye.

Posing as a prophet, the Texan says there are in the Lone Star state today 20 cotton mills with a total of about 200,000 spindles. In 10 years' time he predicted we will easily have 100 mills in the state with a total of over 1,000,000 spindles. In South Carolina there are three spindles per capita population and in North Carolina two spindles per capita.

If Texas had this proportion of spindles to its population there would be nearly 10,000,000 spindles in the state. Texas produces a third of the cotton crop of America. Texas is a large producer of wool and mohair. Texas produces or could produce a greater quantity of lignite for fuel purposes than any other American state. Texas has a population of 5,000,000, who are buyers of cotton goods and yet Texas has 23 cotton mills and 200,000 spindles. Why shouldn't the New Englanders come to Texas? They will be compelled in the near future to go elsewhere for the sceptre has passed from the hands of their multimillionaire millers.

Now the cotton mill is being built close to the cotton patch and the cotton patch happens to be under southern skies.

Says His Prescription Has Wonderful Influence over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Anderson & Horn can supply you. (Adv.)

SICKNESS CAUSED WHEN FLIES GET ON BABY'S FACE!

Because Their Feet Are Loaded With Filthy Germs of Disease Every Footprint Is a Deadly Menace To Your Little One's Health.

Every time a fly put his filthy-laden feet on your baby's lips or chubby face he leaves an imprint that would make any mother's blood curdle if she could see it through a microscope.

All flies, big or little, are filthy-mongers and germ distributors. I tell you—no mother—dangerous to health.

Protect your home from flies and all other insects. Don't depend on fly swatters, powders or messy poisons by paper that is dangerous to use. They cannot possibly kill all insects. Spray the room with Fly-Hit and insure the instant death of insects. Fly-Hit destroys flies, mosquitoes, moths (and the eggs), roaches, ants, fleas, lice and every other kind of crawling, flying bug or insect.

Fly-Hit cannot stain and leaves no unsightly "smell". It is absolutely harmless to human.

Sold in large bottles with sprayer for all dangerous, gross and other household insects. Substitutes can't and won't do the work.

JEFFRIES PITCHES NINE TO THREE GAME OVER RANGERS

Jeffries won his game Wednesday when the Gushers took the first of their series here with Austin to the tune of nine to three. A homer by Seely in the first which traveled over right field fence scored Fowkes, Harding and himself for the first three tallies.

Austin took eleven hits off Jeffries but they were well scattered and the visitors got only three runs to their credit. The Gushers on the other hand bunched their hits well and added by five errors, three of which were made by Kendrick at third, their lead was never in danger.

Jeffries struck out five men and with splendid backing pitched a brand of ball that is hard to beat. He was wild at times, however, which is a common trait of left handed mounds-men, but he kept himself pretty well in hand throughout the game. His fielding was close and steady.

There were few sensational plays the Gushers playing steady consistent baseball for the entire nine innings. The Rangers in the absence of their manager, Griggs, were off form during the game and often muddled excellent chances which would have lessened the score piled up against them.

Mr. E. F. Copper and daughter, Juanita, of Wortham were down Tuesday having their eyes seen after. Mrs. Copper came with them and attended to other business while her husband and daughter visited a local oculometrist's office.

Went To Galveston To See Bathing Girls

Galveston, May 29—"Come to Galveston and see the bathing girls," delegates from the Island City to the Tent and Awning Makers' convention at Dallas last year pleaded.

And the modern Omars consented. Dates were set during the week of May 25-31, Saturday, May 17, the day before the annual bathing girls' revue, Ray Meeker, local tent and awning maker, looked up from his work to find a group of needle artists in his office. Upon inquiry he found they had arrived for the convention and to see the bathing girls.

They saw the bathing girls but as to the exact number who stayed for the convention a week later, Meeker wouldn't hazard a guess.

PEOPLE WHO WERE ONCE GOOD LOOKING

A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a down town store when a middle-aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying. "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."

So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment, and Black and White Soap, to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, freckles, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend upon it. And they are more economical, too. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap. (Adv.)

Texas University Has Largest Class In Its History

AUSTIN, Texas, May 29.—When the forty-first annual commencement exercises of the University of Texas are held on Friday morning, June 6, there will probably be the largest class in the history of the school. There are 611 candidates for degrees this year, and according to Dean T. U. Taylor, chairman of the committee on diplomas, the number shows an increase of 85 over the applicants last year, and is greater than ever before. Since many of the candidates may fail to pass the degree requirements, an estimate of the graduates has been made as 500.

Bishop Co-Adjutor Clinton Quin, of the Texas diocese, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates on Sunday morning, June 1. The principal address of the commencement ceremonies will be delivered by Judge R. L. Hutto, of Austin, who received the law degree from the University in 1886. On Saturday, May 31, Ex-Students' Day will be held, with classes celebrating their anniversaries from the fifth anniversary, through the fortieth, in intervals of five years. The Law Class of 1884 will be the honor guest of the occasion, and John H. Cobb, of Juneau, Alaska, formerly Attorney General of the Alaskan territory, will deliver the ex-students' address.

The records show that the 611 candidates for degrees this year are divided as follows: doctor of philosophy, 2; master of arts, 67; master of business administration, 6; bachelor of laws, 73; engineers, 74; bachelor of business administration, 87; bachelor of science in medicine, 11; bachelor of journalism, 13; bachelor of science in home economics, 26; bachelor of arts, 352.

Boys Were Mad But Now They Are Glad

Galveston, May 29.—Ex-servicemen and legionnaires of Galveston were considerably riled a few days ago. Now they are exultant.

It all happened when Mayor Bayless Harris wired President Coolidge commending him for vetoing the soldier bonus, declaring "the vast majority of the ex-servicemen who are honest to God-Americans do not want it."

The ex-servicemen retaliated by sending a message to their congressmen which asserted the mayor had taken an unwarranted thrust at their patriotism and reflected his own personal opinion. Word that the president's veto had been overridden was the occasion for a celebration here.

Police Fight To Hold Men

CHICAGO, May 29.—While police insist they are still up against a blank wall in a hunt for the kidnappers and slayers of Robert Franks, 14, they will fight the efforts to free Mott Kirk Mitchell and Walter Wilson, instructors at the private school attended by the victim.

Chief of Police Collins said that he would fight to hold the men in custody "for questioning" until such time as he felt absolutely certain they had no connection with the affair. If indications point to the release of the men, "we will book one of them in connection with the murder," Collins said.

Several dope addicts and known perverses have been picked up for examination. Other suspicious characters are being picked up for examination. Other suspicious are being picked up hourly, and being released just as fast.

Chief of Detectives Hughes has started his investigation all over again a third time. He is examining members of the Franks family to determine whether revenge and not racism or perversion was the motive.

TOOK PRESIDENT LINCOLN TO THE ENEMY TRENCHES

To have the honor of escorting the President of the United States and his wife to within sight of a hostile army, and stand by his side as he calmly surveyed the entrenched enemy, is an experience that will come to few men in history, yet that is exactly what fell to the lot of Major E. T. Ellis, now residing at 503 South Eighth Street, St. Joseph, Mo., one of the city's most prominent and picturesque figures.

The president was none other than Abraham Lincoln and the scene of this interesting episode was near Richmond, Va.

Major Ellis, who was an aide to General Grant, tells an interesting story of Lincoln's visit and of the climax to the Richmond campaign, which he witnessed.

MAJ. E. T. ELLIS

Major Ellis says Mr. Lincoln showed no signs of uneasiness when inspecting the Confederate trenches, although they were within easy artillery range.

Recently Major Ellis' usual robust health failed him for several weeks and he was unable to walk about town and visit his friends as usual. That he is again in sturdy health he attributes entirely to Kyrak, the sensational new medicine recently introduced here. "I can say without fear of favor that Kyrak put me back on my feet," declares Maj. Ellis. "I simply feel like the medicine has given me a new lease on life and I never tire of recommending it. My whole system was 'shot to pieces.' I was suffering from high blood pressure, disordered kidneys, weak, dizzy spells, and a bad case of nervous indigestion that it seemed nothing could help. I also had severe pains through my back and shoulders and neck, which I suppose was a kind of rheumatism. Anyway, nothing helped me a particle and I was in just about as bad a fix as I was when I was wounded and captured by the Johnny Rebs at Petersburg. But Kyrak took right hold of my troubles and soon put me in fine shape again. For the first time in weeks I am able to walk down town and visit with my friends. All my life I have liked to help people and I don't know any better way to do it than tell them about Kyrak. It is the most wonderful medicine I ever saw."

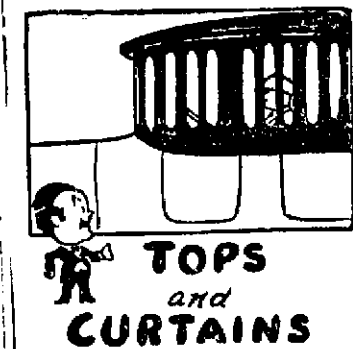

Major Ellis has lived in St. Joseph for the past forty years and numbers his friends by the thousands. Scores of them are congratulating him on his renewed health. Kyrak is sold in Mexia by the Mexia Drug Co.—(Adv.)

Firpo And Wills To Meet In Aug.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, May 29.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion and Harry Wills are to meet in Jersey City in August and the winner will be matched with Jack Dempsey for a heavyweight championship bout in September.

Tex Rickard, who is to stage both matches, said today that Firpo hadn't definitely signed any articles calling for his return to this country but that he was expecting word from him today.

While Rickard would not give all the details of his plans, it was understood that he promised Firpo $250,000 for meeting Wills and a similar sum for a return bout with Dempsey if he won the Wills fight.

Rickard admitted last night he had reopened negotiations with Firpo and said he had been told by his South American representatives that the Argentine was in the mood to listen to a new proposition. So Tex made another offer, which it is reported, has been accepted. Rickard said today that Firpo was such a big drawing card that any promoter would want to use him in a big match.

"There is room on the schedule for two big heavyweight matches this summer," Rickard said. "A match between Firpo and Wills would be the best way of deciding the next opponent for Dempsey and I believe it would be a popular match."

While it may be a fact that Firpo has not signed articles, it is understood that he has accepted the offer in a cable to Rickard and the announcement is being withheld for publicity purposes later.

DALLAS LADY TELLS OF REGAINING HEALTH

MRS. MARIE HENDERSON WAS FORCED TO REMAIN IN BED FOR YEAR FOLLOWING NERVOUS BREAKDOWN.

"Before I took Tanlac I only weighed 107 lbs. and I now weigh 140," is the remarkable statement made, recently by Miss Marie Henderson, a charming young lady, 4631 Cole Ave., Dallas, Texas.

"While in high school my appetite failed, my digestion became very bad, my nerves gave way and I broke completely down. So I was forced to my bed, where I stayed a whole year, and was never able to regain my strength until I began taking Tanlac.

"Tanic soon brought me a wonderful appetite, corrected my stomach disorders, stopped my weak, dizzy spells and made my nerves as calm as nerves can be. Several years have past since Tanlac restored my health and I am still strong and well. I eat anything I want, sleep fine and feel the same way. That is how much Tanlac helped me and of course I think it is just grand."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles.

LLOYD STUDIES

HUMAN NATURE

There are probably very few people who have never had the privilege of seeing Harold Lloyd in at least one of his successful comedy hits "Grandma's Boy," "Dr. Jack," "Safety Last," or "Why Worry?" But still, in spite of his world wide popularity, very few people outside of his family know intimately the spectacular comedian, whose latest feature Pathe comedy, "Girl Shy," has just been released.

Lloyd is one of the few screen performers who intensely dislike to be recognized in public, for one thing. That in itself is remarkable, for few of the silent drama's stars wish to shun the adulation of the street mob. Lloyd is by nature bashful, retiring, modest. Once known in public, he becomes diffident, ill at ease. "They think Harold Lloyd should say smart things and do stunts upon the chandelier," he explains, "I can't and I hate to disappoint people."

Harold is a close student of human nature and sees humor where others see only the tragic. He is in reality a combination of prankishness and seriousness. While actually at work he is as serious as anyone could be, but the minute that work stops he is full of pranks. He has kept himself from becoming conceited by thought that perhaps he is not as good as people think he is.

Harold has only one bad habit. He neither drinks, smokes nor swears, but he has a mania for taking advice. Any outside suggestions he receives concerning his pictures are long considered by him. Often he will retake whole sequences upon somebody's advice, which occasionally improve the picture and on other instances result only in lost labor and time.

Lloyd's likes and diversions are many and varied. He is a rabid motion picture fan, likes opera and dancing, and is crazy about the theatre. His favorite hobbies are tailor magic, at which he is an adept, playing chess, polo, swimming, dancing, horse-back riding and tennis.

Harold is not satisfied with what he is just now. He believes that to be satisfied with oneself is to stop climbing, and to stop climbing, he believes, is to halt one's happiness. So he has tried to make each successive picture better than its predecessor, and entirely distinctive from it.

In "Girl Shy," now playing at the National Theatre for three days, Lloyd is seen as a poor, bashful tailor's apprentice in a small country town where only three things ever happen—morning, noon and night. He imagines that he knows women, although he is too bashful in their presence to associate with them. In fact, the more he tries to study them from afar, the more he fears them. His characterization in this fun-film is said to be far and away the best and funniest thing he has ever done.

FRESH ROASTED COFFEE

Fishing Is Fine Say Anglers

DALLAS, May, 29.—Fishing is especially good in Texas this year, according to local anglers as well as sporting goods salesman. Plentiful rains have freshened the waters over the state and the big ones are biting according to all reports.

Three Dallas fishermen exhibited one catch consisting of four bass, averaging four pounds each, one weighing six and a half pounds and two ten and a half pounds, pulled from White Rock Lake.

As for the best time to fish, the old family almanac quotes the following dates from the zodiac as days when they ought to bite: May 27, 28, 29; June 24, 25; July 21, 22; August 17, 18, 19; Sept. 14, 15; Oct. 11, 12, Nov. 7, 8, 9; Dec. 5, 6.

JINX TUCKER SAYS

President A. B. Johnson was in Waco Tuesday and announced the release of Umpire Coffey.

Life, the new Texas association umpire, is apt to make a splendid umpire. His judgement on balls and strikes to date has not been of the best, but he has been out of the game for quite a while. In other departments he has made a splendid impression though he has had an unusual number of close ones to call.

Temporary organization of the Waco chapter of the Isank Walton league will be perfected at a meeting which has been called by Frank Elder the state organizer for tomorrow.

Don Flynn has been released by the Austin team and joined the Texas club yesterday. He just about made the rounds in the East Texas league, and he ought to be able to get in a week or so with every team in the Texas association before the close of the season. With all his recent activities the Wild Irishman is a splendid drawing card.

RURAL ROUTER ON RURAL ROUTE TRIP

Troy McElroy, rural route carrier on route 1, is now taking his vacation, and accompanied by his wife left Thursday about noon for a three weeks trip through Colorado and other points of interest in the mountains. Always give your wife her own way; it will save her the trouble of taking it.

Says Piles Heal Up And Disappear Forever

SELDOM FAILS TO GIVE ABSOLUTE RELIEF FROM ALL PAIN AND SUFFERING. GUARANTEED BY COX-FORREST DRUG COMPANY.

Many sufferers from Piles and Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, "Go to your druggist and get an original box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained. MOAYA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or Hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Cox Forrest Drug Co.—(Adv.)

Kitchen Adventures Thrill Her

Stage adventure is nothing to the kitchen variety, thinks Edna Starck, a charming exponent of both varieties. Miss Starck who impersonates "Adventure" in the Popular Magazine scene of "Artists and Models" finds an even greater thrill in the culinary adventure of inventing new dishes, for which it must be said, she has no difficulty in finding an audience as appreciative as in the theatre. Miss Starck is an expert at that rather difficult but delectable edible, toast.

Cheese Fondue. Her method is this:
2 tablespoonfuls of flour, ½ cup of grated cheese, 1 tablespoonful of crisco, 2 eggs, salt, pepper and red pepper, and ½ cup of milk. Melt the crisco, add flour, then add the milk gradually. Stir till they boil, cool a little, add the cheese and yolks and seasonings. Pour in the whites stiffly beaten. Bake into a greased soufflé tin. Bake 24 minutes in a hot oven. Fold a napkin round and serve hot as toast.

Churches Protest Against Heavyweight Fight 12 DIE IN STORM SWEEPED AREA IN OKLAHOMA

Game Rained Out, Double-Header For Friday

Message Says Title Bout is Outlawed In State

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—Telegrams protesting against the Carpenter-Gibbons fight at Michigan City Saturday were received by Governor Branch from the Presbyterian Assembly at Grand Rapids, Mich., and the Methodist Conference at Springfield, Mass. Both messages declared the match will be unlawful prize fight under Indiana laws. Gov. Branch is said to have taken every precaution to see that the state laws are observed.

They Are Ready!

MICHIGAN CITY.—Georges Carpenter and Tommy Gibbons have finished the hard grind and now are drifting along on light calisthenics to their 10 round fight here Saturday. They are on edge and fear over training.

Gibbons wound up with ten sizzling rounds while Georges idled around yesterday. It is almost the consensus of opinion that the fight is a toss up and the "experts" are advising against putting up bets. "Almost anything may happen," is the more or less original way they sum it up.

MELLON CHARGED WITH DEALING WITH NOTED BOOTLEGGERS

WASHINGTON, May 29.—In his farewell appearance before the Senate investigating committee Gaston B. Means said Jesse Smith gave him documents "showing that Secretary Mellon had gone into arrangements with Red Sheldon, New York bootlegger, to give Sheldon liquor permits for which he was to pay part of the national republican committee deficit." Means said he heard that Fred Upham, treasurer of the committee, and Senator Bursum of New Mexico, were parties to the "deal." Means said the big bootleggers are bankers of this country, and the "daddies" of them all are Mellon banks and the Chatham Phoenix bank of New York.

CONVENTION "KEYNOTERS" SHAKE HANDS

This is an unusual photograph to be taken on the eve of national conventions of the two major political parties. Representative Theodore E. Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, who will occupy an exactly similar position in the Democratic National Convention in New York City.

Greatest Storm Of The Year Hits Last Night

WETUMKA, Okla., May 29.—Twelve persons known dead, more than fifty injured and several missing with property damage estimated at more than $100,000, was the toll of cyclones which scourged Southwestern Oklahoma in the greatest storm of the year late yesterday and last night, according to incomplete reports today.

Wetumka was hardest hit by the twister, which swept a path a block wide and five blocks long through the residential district shortly before night. Ten were killed outright and forty injured here. Fourteen of the most seriously injured were taken to hospitals at Henryetta, where it was believed today all would recover. Thirty were housed in the National Guard armory as an improvised hospital, while the homeless and slightly injured were taken in by residents.

The dead: J. L. Ramsey, W. R. Armstrong, wife and baby, H. A. Woodruff and wife, Infant daughter of Edward Cole. Three unidentified.

Two persons were reported dead and two injured at Warner, thirty miles south of Muskogee.

The dead: William Winkelpeck, 43, Madge Ward, 14. Wire communications throughout this section of the State were disrupted today and many towns were cut off from communication. Reports that Stigler, seventy-five miles east of here, was wiped out, could not be verified.

Red Cross units were enroute here today to help care for the injured and take the place of volunteer relief workers who labored through the night searching the debris for the victims of the elements.

The storm dropped into the better residence section traveling in an easterly direction shortly before sundown. Little rain accompanied the twister. Only a boiling funnel-shaped cloud traveling in a leisurely manner was noticed by residents. Witnesses in other sections of the town depicted little breeze was felt, but its path was swept clean.

Physicians and volunteers, realizing the catastrophe, waiting breathlessly for its passage and then started their search for the victims. Physicians from surrounding towns arrived during the night and conditions were orderly today with the National Guard unit here and the American Legion in charge.

42 GOLFERS TO COMPETE FOR NATIONAL CHAMPS

CHICAGO, May 29.—Forty-two golfers, survivors of the Western eliminations at the Oak Park Country Club, will compete in the finals of the national open golf championship at Birmingham, Mich., June 5 and 6. Mac Donald Smith, of San Francisco, turned in the best score of the trials, making 72-76-148. Emmet French, Youngstown, Ohio, was second with 76-73-149.

Chick Evans and S. Davidson, both veteran players, barely survived the trials with full scores of 158, the limit to qualify. John Black, of Wichita, Kas., a runner-up in recent national tournaments, disappointed the galleries by turning in a 109, which eliminated him from the finals.

Panic Created When Many Killed In Blow Up

BUCHAREST, May 29.—Many persons were killed and injured and the royal families of Roumania and Greece barely escaped with their lives when munitions magazines and artillery dumps near Bucharest blew up in a series of deafening explosions that continued throughout Wednesday. The capital was under fire of a rain of bursting shells which shattered windows in every part of the city and fell in the courtyard of the royal palace. One shell exploded with terrific effect on the exact spot where King Ferdinand had been standing a few seconds before.

Parliament adjourned as the intensity of the explosions increased. There was a panic in schools throughout the city and these were closed to permit the children to seek safety in their homes.

Sparks from a switch engine apparently started the conflagration, igniting a small arms ammunition magazine about two miles from the city. The first explosion was at 10

a. m. Wednesday.

The first dump to let go was in the center of a larger one and flames spread rapidly, exploding a series of magazines. The blasts kept up irregularly until 4 p. m., when flames reached the artillery dumps.

Then began a series of deafening explosions and shells began to fall in every direction, some bursting near the royal palace. Parliament was in session but adjourned.

King Ferdinand and his minister of war, General Madaresco, rushed to the scene of a fire started by one of the detonating shells. The general snatched the King back from a particularly dangerous spot and a few seconds later a shell, landing just where Ferdinand had been standing, blew a large hole in the earth.

Meanwhile the inhabitants were in a panic. Those in the western part of the city, nearer the dumps, fled eastward, many believing the city was being bombarded. The shocks from the exploding dumps caused windows to break throughout the city, so that a constant tinkling of falling glass accompanied the disorder.

The royal family with King George and Queen Elizabeth of Greece, who are here in exile, hastily evacuated the summer residence at Cotroceni. The ceiling fell in shortly afterward.

Even with darkness there was no respite. At 8 p. m. the explosions were resumed. Three tremendous shocks were registered within an hour, followed by rumbling noises like thunder.

An immense column of dense smoke hung over the arsenal and dumps,

MEXIA STEPS IN LINE.

J. Perry Burrus, who is to subscribe to stock in the Mexia Cotton Mills and who is to work with J. K. Hughes and the other directors of the local textile organization in making it a successful, profitable, dividend paying and community building factor in the life of this community is optimistic over the outlook of Texas as an industrial district. He believes that within the next ten years this state will witness the location in Texas of four times as many cotton mills as are now here. Other experts see the same trend. That being the case, Mexia has acted wisely in seeking and in securing a big mill here. The location of one mill in Mexia means the attraction here of possibly other mills or the ultimate expansion of the one decided upon, giving this community a promising prospect of becoming a real industrial section along with the growth of the State.

A TIME FOR RECONSTRUCTION

The American Legion in the United States has contributed and is really contributing a large service to America. It has extended a strong hand in helping lift a barrier at the ports that line the coasts on both sides of the continent, aiding much in securing the passage of a new immigration law soon to become operative. It stands for white supremacy and has heralded this doctrine throughout the length and breadth of the land. It has urged the enforcement of law, and in this way silenced the voices of extreme wets who were whispering when the boys came back from over there that had they been here, the nation would never have annexed the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It has been true to every soldier that fought or that was in training to fight for the preservation of the nation in the great world war. It has called attention to the needs of the men who returned to private life just as much martyrs to the cause as those from whom the breath of life had departed, as well as to the needs of measures of relief for the men who wore the khaki and who in so going suffered permanent injuries to health and body and finally when a bonus was given the railroads and other giant industries, when it became apparent that it was in line with the custom and traditions of America, following all wars of the past, they fought for and secured the passage of the bonus bill in the form of insurance.

In all these campaigns, the Nowlin Post of the American Legion of Mexia has taken its part, carrying its share of the load, functioning harmoniously with the National organization.

But not the least of all services to the Nation rendered by the American Legion has been and is that wherein every Post of the American Legion in the United States is authorized and advised to take hold and see that no patriotic day passes but that it is properly observed. Since the organization of the Nowlin Post, the local soldiers have striven to the end that the attention of the entire public might be duly called to the auspicious occasions when Americans are expected to kneel on the altars of their country and renew their allegiance and cement more bindingly than ever the ties of love for homeland. That's the service of National holidays. The original design was not to have holidays merely for bankers to take a day of rest or for postal employees to have an outing, but to afford days of reconsecration to the high ideals of America.

In line with this fundamental purpose of holidays championed by the American Legion the Nowlin Post, assisted by the old soldiers of the South, honor to their great deeds! have called the service for Thursday night at the First Baptist church. This occasion is to celebrate Memorial Day. Friday night could not be utilized, which is the Thirtieth of May, on account of that chancing to be commencement day for the Mexia High School. To this service tonight and to the cause which it represents all citizens of this community are invited to lend a hand and their presence if possible.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

TEXAS AS TEXTILE CENTER

J. Perry Burrus is a Texan who is largely interested in textile mills as well as flouring mills. He has many iron in the fire. He is home from Boston where he conferred with many of the big spinners of New England. Now the Texan says that instead of going out to seek cotton mills Texans in two years time will have to be putting the breaks on to keep too many mills from coming in at one time.

According to the Texan it is rapidly becoming to be unprofitable to operate mills in New England. This is due to the fact that freight rates are away up and to the further fact that the center of distribution of the finished products of the mills is every year moving further and further to the west.

Further more the New England spinners see the handwriting on the wall. They know that they must move their industry nearer to the section where the raw material is produced. Big spinners of the north-eastern portion of the Atlantic seaboard, according to Mr. Burrus, are looking to Texas more and more and he knows of at least four men among the giants of the textile industry who are coming to Texas this fall to look the situation over.

They told the Texan something else—that as the cotton mills begin to move out of New England very few would go to the southeastern states on the Atlantic seaboard as the people of these states are interested in cotton mills of their own and do not wish to encourage new mills to come in. Hence the southwest and especially Texas, is the section toward which all the New England spinners are gazing with interested eye.

Posing as a prophet, the Texan says there are in the Lone Star state today 20 cotton mills with a total of about 200,000 spindles. In 10 years' time he predicted we will easily have 100 mills in the state with a total of over 1,000,000 spindles. In South Carolina there are three spindles per capita population and in North Carolina two spindles per capita.

If Texas had this proportion of spindles to its population there would be nearly 10,000,000 spindles in the state. Texas produces a third of the cotton crop of America. Texas is a large producer of wool and mohair. Texas produces or could produce a greater quantity of lignite for fuel purposes than any other American state. Texas has a population of 5,000,000, who are buyers of cotton goods and yet Texas has 23 cotton mills and 200,000 spindles. Why shouldn't the New Englanders come to Texas? They will be compelled in the near future to go elsewhere for the sceptre has passed from the hands of their multimillionaire millers.

Now the cotton mill is being built close to the cotton patch and the cotton patch happens to be under southern skies.

Says His Prescription Has Wonderful Influence over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Allen's & Horn can supply you.—(Adv.)

SICKNESS CAUSED WHEN FLIES GET ON BABY'S FACE!

Because Their Feet Are Loaded With Filthy Germs of Disease Every Footprint Is a Deadly Menace To Your Little One's Health.

Every time a fly put his filthy-laden feet on your helpless baby's lips or chubby face he leaves an imprint that would make any mother shudder if she could see it through a microscope.

All flies, big or little, are filth-mongers and germ distributors—leathsome—revolting—dangerous to health.

Protect your home from flies and all other insects. Don't depend on fly swatters, powders or messy poisonous fly paper that is dangerous to use. They cannot possibly kill all insects. Spray the room with Fly-Flu and insure the instant death of insects. Fly-Flu destroys flies, mosquitoes, moths (and their eggs), roaches, ants, fleas, lice and every other kind of crawling, flying bug or insect.

Fly-Flu cannot stain and leaves no unpleasant odors. It is absolutely harmless to humans. Sold in large bottles with sprayer 50c at all druggists, grocers and other retail stores. Substitutes can't and won't do the work.

JEFFRIES PITCHES NINE TO THREE GAME OVER RANGERS

Jeffries won his game Wednesday when the Gushers took the first of their series here with Austin to the tune of nine to three. A homer by Seely in the first which traveled over right field fence scored Fowlkes, Harding and himself for the first three tallies. Austin took eleven hits off Jeffries but they were well scattered and the visitors got only three runs to their credit. The Gushers on the other hand bunched their hits well and aided by five errors, three of which were made by Kendrick at third, their lead was never in danger. Jeffries struck out five men and with splendid backing pitched a brand of ball that is hard to beat. He was wild at times, however, which is a common trait of left handed moundsmen, but he kept himself pretty well in hand throughout the game. His fielding was close and steady. There were few sensational plays the Gushers playing steady consistent baseball for the entire nine innings. The Rangers in the absence of their manager, Griggs, were off form during the game and often muddled excellent chances which would have lessened the score piled up against them.

Mr. E. F. Copper and daughter, Juanita, of Wortham were down Tuesday having their eyes seen after Mrs. Copper came with them and attended to other business while her husband and daughter visited a local automobile dealer's office.

Went To Galveston To See Bathing Girls

Galveston, May 29—"Come to Galveston and see the bathing girls," delegates from the Island City to the Tent and Awning Makers' convention at Dallas last year pleaded. And the modern Omars consented. Dates were set during the week of May 25-31. Saturday, May 17, the day before the annual bathing girls' revue, Ray Meeker, local tent and awning maker, looked up from his work to find a group of needle artists in his office. Upon inquiry he found they had arrived for the convention and to see the bathing girls. They saw the bathing girls but as to the exact number who stayed for the convention a week later, Meeker wouldn't hazard a guess.

PEOPLE WHO WERE ONCE GOOD LOOKING

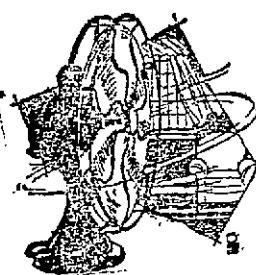

A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a down town store when a middle-aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying. "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."

So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment, and Black and White Soap, to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, tetter, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend upon it. And they are more economical, too. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap.—(Adv.)

Texas University Has Largest Class In Its History

AUSTIN, Texas, May 29.—When the forty-first annual commencement exercises of the University of Texas are held on Friday morning, June 6, there will probably be the largest class in the history of the school. There are 611 candidates for degrees this year, and according to Dean T. U. Taylor, chairman of the committee on diplomas, the number shows an increase of 85 over the applicants last year, and is greater than ever before. Since many of the candidates may fail to pass the degree requirements, an estimate of the graduates has been made as 500.

Bishop Co-Adjutor Clinton Quin, of the Texas diocese, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates on Sunday morning, June 1. The principal address of the commencement ceremonies will be delivered by Judge R. L. Batts, of Austin, who received the law degree from the University in 1886. On Saturday, May 31, Ex-Students' Day will be held, with classes celebrating their anniversaries from the fifth anniversary, through the fortieth, in intervals of five years. The Law Class of 1884 will be the honor guest of the occasion, and John H. Cobb, of Juneau, Alaska, formerly Attorney General of the Alaskan territory, will deliver the ex-students' address.

The records show that the 611 candidates for degrees this year are divided as follows: doctor of philosophy, 2; master of arts, 67; master of business administration, 6; bachelor of laws, 23; engineers, 74; bachelor of business administration, 87; bachelor of science in medicine, 11; bachelor of journalism, 13; bachelor of science in home economics, 26; bachelor of arts, 252.

Boys Were Mad But Now They Are Glad

Galveston, May 29.—Ex-servicemen and legionnaires of Galveston were considerably riled a few days ago. Now they are exultant.

It all happened when Mayor Bayless Harris wired President Coolidge commending him for vetoing the soldier bonus, declaring "the vast majority of the ex-servicemen who are honest to God-Americans do not want it." The ex-servicemen retaliated by sending a message to their congressmen which asserted the mayor had taken an unwarranted thrust at their patriotism and reflected his own personal opinion. Word that the president's veto had been overridden was the occasion for a celebration here.

Police Fight To Hold Men

CHICAGO, May 29.—While police insist they are still up against a blank wall in a hunt for the kidnapers and slayers of Robert Franks, 14, they will fight the efforts to free Mott Kirk Mitchell and Walter Wilson, instructors at the private school attended by the victim.

Chief of Police Collins said that he would fight to hold the men in custody "for questioning" until such time as he felt absolutely certain they had no connection with the affair. If indications point to the release of the men, "we will hook one of them in connection with the murder," Collins said.

Several dope addicts and known pervers have been picked up for examination. Other suspicious characters are being picked up for examination. Other suspicious are being picked up hourly, and being released just as fast.

Chief of Detectives Hughes has started his investigation all over again a third time. He is examining members of the Franks family to determine whether revenge and not ransom or perversion was the motive.

TOOK PRESIDENT LINCOLN TO THE ENEMY TRENCHES

To have the honor of escorting the President of the United States and his wife to within sight of a hostile army, and stand by his side as he calmly surveyed the entrenched enemy, is an experience that will come to few men in history, yet that is exactly what fell to the lot of Major E. T. Ellis, now residing at 503 South Eighth Street, St. Joseph, Mo., one of the city's most prominent and picturesque figures.

The president was none other than Abraham Lincoln and the scene of this interesting episode was near Richmond, Va.

Major Ellis, who was an aide to General Grant, tells an interesting story of Lincoln's visit and of the climax to the Richmond campaign, which he witnessed.

MAJ. E. T. ELLIS

Major Ellis says Mr. Lincoln showed no signs of uneasiness when inspecting the Confederate trenches, although they were within easy artillery range.

Recently Major Ellis' usual robust health failed him and for several weeks he was unable to walk about town and visit his friends as usual. That he is again in sturdy health he attributes entirely to Karnak, the sensational new medicine recently introduced here. "I can say without fear or favor that Karnak put me back on my feet," declares Maj. Ellis. "I simply feel like the medicine has given me a new lease on life."

—and I never tire of recommending it. My whole system was 'shot to pieces.' I was suffering from high blood pressure, disordered kidneys, weak, dizzy spells, and a bad case of nervous indigestion that it seemed nothing could help. I also had severe pains through my back and shoulders and neck, which I suppose was a kind of rheumatism. Anyway, nothing helped me a particle and I was in just about as bad a fix as I was when I was wounded and captured by the Johnny Rebs at Petersburg. But Karnak took right hold of my troubles and soon put me in fine shape again. For the first time in weeks I am able to walk down town and visit with my friends. All my life I have liked to help people and I don't know any better way to do it than tell them about Karnak. It is the most wonderful medicine I ever saw."

Major Ellis has lived in St. Joseph for the past forty years and numbers his friends by the thousands. Scores of them are congratulating him on his renewed health. Karnak is sold in Mexia by the Mexia Drug Co.—(Adv.)

Firpo And Wills To Meet In Aug.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, May 29.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion and Harry Wills are to meet in Jersey City in August and the winner will be matched with Jack Dempsey for a heavyweight championship bout in September.

Tex Rickard, who is to stage both matches, said today that Firpo hadn't definitely signed any articles calling for his return to this country but that he was expecting word from him today.

While Rickard would not give all the details of his plans, it was understood that he promised Firpo $250,000 for meeting Wills and a similar sum for a return bout with Dempsey if he won the Wills fight.

Rickard admitted last night he had reopened negotiations with Firpo and said he had been told by his South American representatives that the Argentine was in the mood to listen to a new proposition. So Tex made another offer, which it is reported, has been accepted.

Rickard said today that Firpo was such a big drawing card that any promoter would want to use him in a big match.

"There is room on the schedule for two big heavyweight matches this summer," Rickard said. "A match between Firpo and Wills would be the best way of deciding the next opponent for Dempsey and I believe it would be a popular match."

While it may be a fact that Firpo has not signed articles, it is understood that he has accepted the offer in a cable to Rickard and the announcement is being withheld for publicity purposes later.

DALLAS LADY TELLS OF REGAINING HEALTH

MRS. MARIE HENDERSON WAS FORCED TO REMAIN IN BED FOR YEAR FOLLOWING NERVOUS BREAKDOWN.

"Before I took Tanlac I only weighed 107 lbs. and I now weigh 140," is the remarkable statement made, recently by Miss Marie Henderson, a charming young lady, 4631 Cole Ave., Dallas, Texas.

"While in high school my appetite failed, my digestion became very bad, my nerves gave way and I broke completely down. So I was forced to my bed, where I stayed a whole year, and was never able to regain my strength until I began taking Tanlac.

"Tanalac soon brought me a wonderful appetite, corrected my stomach disorders, stopped my weak, dizzy spells and made my nerves as calm as nerves can be. Several years have past since Tanlac restored my health and I am still strong and well. I eat anything I want, sleep fine and feel the same way. That is how much Tanlac helped me and of course I think it is just grand."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles.

LLOYD STUDIES HUMAN NATURE

There are probably very few people who have never had the privilege of seeing Harold Lloyd in at least one of his successful comedy hits "Grandma's Boy," "Dr. Jack," "Safety Last," or "Why Worry?" But still, in spite of his world wide popularity, very few people outside of his family know intimately the spectacled comedian, whose latest feature Pathe comedy, "Girl Shy," has just been released.

Lloyd is one of the few screen performers who intensely dislike to be recognized in public, for one thing. That in itself is remarkable, for few of the silent drama's stars wish to shun the adulation of the street mob. Lloyd is by nature bashful, retiring, modest. Once known in public, he becomes diffident, ill at ease. "They think Harold Lloyd should say smart things and do stunts upon the chandelier," he explains, "I can't and I hate to disappoint people."

Harold is a close student of human nature and sees humor where others see only the tragic. He is in reality a combination of prankishness and seriousness. While actually at work he is as serious as anyone could be, but the minute that work stops he is full of pranks. He has kept himself from becoming conceited by thought that perhaps he is not as good as people think he is.

Harold has only one bad habit. He neither drinks, smokes nor swears, but he has a mania for taking advice. Any outside suggestions he receives concerning his pictures are long considered by him. Often he will relate whole sequences upon somebody's advice, which occasionally improve the picture and on other instances result only in lost labor and time.

Lloyd's likes and diversions are many and varied. He is a rabid motion picture fan, likes opera and dancing, and is crazy about the theatre. His favorite hobbies are parlor magic, at which he is an adept, playing chess, solitaire, swimming, dancing, horseback riding and tennis.

Harold is not satisfied with what he is just now. He believes that to be satisfied with oneself is to stop climbing, and to stop climbing, he believes, is to halt one's happiness. So he has tried to make each successive picture better than its predecessor, and entirely distinctive from it.

In "Girl Shy," now playing at the National Theatre for three days, Lloyd is seen as a poor, bashful tailor's apprentice in a small country town where only three things ever happen—morning, noon and night. He imagines that he knows women, although he is too abashed in their presence to associate with them. In fact, the more he tries to study them from afar, the more he fears them. His characterization in this fun-film is said to be far and away the best and funniest thing he has ever done.

Fishing Is Fine Say Anglers

DALLAS, May, 29.—Fishing is especially good in Texas this year, according to local anglers as well as sporting goods salesman. Pleasant rains have freshened the waters over the state and the big ones are biting according to all reports.

Three Dallas fishermen exhibited one catch consisting of four bass, one weighing four pounds each, one weighing six and a half pounds and two ten and a half pounders, pulled from White Rock Lake.

As for the best time to fish, the old family almanac quotes the following dates from the zodiac as days when they ought to bite: May 27, 28, 29; June 24, 25; July 21, 22, August 17, 18, 19; Sept. 14, 15; Oct. 11, 12, Nov. 7, 8, 9; Dec. 5, 6.

JINX TUCKER SAYS

President A. B. Johnson was in Waco Tuesday and announced the release of Umpire Coffen.

Life, the new Texas association umpire, is apt to make a splendid umpire. His judgment on balls and strikes to date has not been of the best, but he has been out of the game for quite a while. In other departments he has made a splendid impression though he has had an unusual number of close ones to call.

Temporary organization of the Waco chapter of the Isaac Walton league will be perfected at a meeting which will be called by Frank Elder the state organizer for tomorrow.

Don Flynn has been released by the Austin team and joined the Mexico club yesterday. He just about made the rounds in the East Texas league, and he ought to be able to get in a week or so with every team in the Texas association before the close of the season. With all his eccentricities the Wild Irishman is a splendid drawing card.

Says Piles Heal Up And Disappear Forever

SELDOM FAILS TO GIVE ABSOLUTE RELIEF FROM ALL PAIN AND SUFFERING. GUARANTEED BY COX-FORREST DRUG COMPANY.

Many sufferers from Piles and Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To those people we say, "Go to your druggist and get an original box of MOAVA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained. MOAVA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or Hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Cox Forrest Drug Co.—(Adv.)

Kitchen Adventures Thrill Her

Stage adventure is nothing to the kitchen variety, thinks Edna Starck, a charming exponent of both varieties. Miss Starck who impersonates "Adventure" in the Popular Magazine scene of "Artists and Models" finds an even greater thrill in the culinary adventure of inventing new dishes, for which, it must be said, she has no difficulty in finding an audience as appreciative as in the theatre. Miss Starck is an expert at that rather difficult but delectable edible, Cheese Fondue. Her method is this:

2 tablespoonfuls of flour, ½ cup of grated cheese, 1 tablespoonful of crisco, 2 eggs, salt, pepper and red pepper, and ½ cup of milk. Melt the crisco, add flour, then add the milk gradually. Stir all they boil, cool a little, add the cheese and yolks and seasonings. Fold in the whites stiffly beaten. Pour into a greased soufflé tin. Bake 24 minutes in a hot oven. Fold a napkin round and serve hot or cold.
